

NOMINATIONS FOR 2025 NATA PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT EXCELLENCE AWARD

The Professional Development Excellence Award is given to an individual who has made outstanding contributions in the area of professional development for athletic trainers.

Recipients will be evaluated in the following areas of professional development:

- Coordination of professional development activities (committee work, planning/hosting events, etc.)
- Delivery of professional development programming (presentations, workshops, etc.) for athletic trainers.
- Creation/Development of innovative projects related to professional development (infographics, podcasts, videos, interactive online content, etc.)

Eligibility

- NATA member in good standing with a clear record of contributions to the advancement of athletic training professional practice.
- Recognition for service to professional development and continuing education that is sustained and impactful at the state, regional and national level.
- Current members of the Professional Development Committee are not eligible.
- Prior recipients are not eligible.
- Nominations are valid for two successive years; therefore, nominees not selected for the current year's award, will automatically be considered for the following year's award.
